for specific guidelines and applications requirements.

The American College of Neuropsychopharmacology (ACNP) annually selects distinguished young scientists in the field of neuropsychopharmacology to be a part of our Travel Award program. These awards offer an opportunity to attend an outstanding scientific program in clinical and basic research on brain-behavior-drug interactions; become aware of the most recent, and often unpublished, advances in psychopharmacology; and meet and interact with internationally distinguished researchers and scientists.

The ACNP Council and Education & Training Committee are encouraging applications from residents who have an active research interest.

Specific travel awardee benefits include:

- An ACNP member mentor for the meeting
- Meeting registration for award recipient and accompanying other
- Up to five nights lodging and round trip coach air fare to attend the ACNP meeting in Hollywood, Florida December 6-10, 2015
- $100 ground transportation stipend
- A daily stipend of $50 for meals and other annual meeting expenses incurred for up to six days
- Two opportunities to present a poster including a reception attended by mentors, committee chairs, and ACNP leadership
- An automatic invitation to attend four (4) additional ACNP annual meetings with reduced registration fee, and the opportunity to present a poster at each meeting without the need of an ACNP member sponsor
